

2023 Pember Festival of Wreaths

The Pember Library and Museum in Granville, NY is pleased to announce the return of our annual "Festival of Wreaths".

The Pember will offer creative-minded individuals in our community an opportunity to make a personal or business-themed holiday wreath that will be on display at the Pember.

By submitting your Registration Form, you agree to the following guidelines:

Guidelines

1. Registration forms and payment should be mailed (checks only) to: Pember Library and Museum, 33 West Main St., Granville, NY 12832.

Cash may be brought into the library to complete your registration.

3. All wreaths must be artificial.

All artificial greenery and decorations are to be firmly attached to a secure frame with hanger for hanging.

4. Each wreath must have a theme and title... for example, personal interests, business, music, holiday, etc. Participants will be asked to submit a name for their wreath and a brief description.

5. Display Donation Fee is $10. This fee is waived if participants would like to donate their item(s) to be auctioned for the benefit of the Pember Library and Museum.

Items that are not suitable to be auctioned will be refused.

6. Wreaths will be set up November 30 and December 1.

7. Wreaths will be displayed from December 1 -December 16.

8. Bidding on wreaths will start on First Friday, December 1 and close on December 15.

Winning bidders will be announced on December 15.

9. Wreaths must be paid for and picked up by December 20 by owner or winner. If winner does not pick up by deadline item will go to next highest bidder.
